A COMPANION TO THE BIG PICTURE SCIENCE RADIO SHOW

THE LATEST FROM SETH ON HUFFINGTON POST:

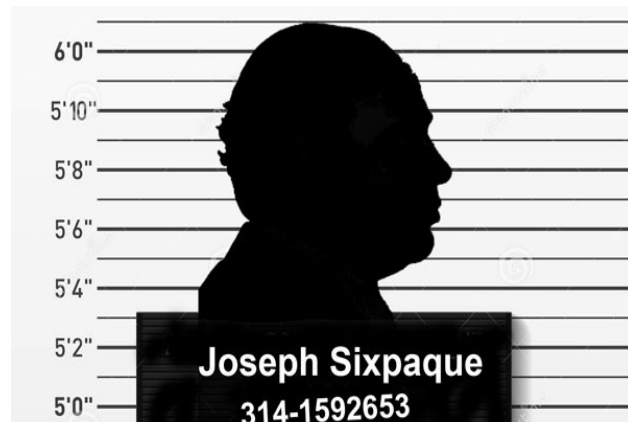

Roswell Aliens Not So Alien

Nearly 70 years after extraterrestrials supposedly pushed the wrong button in their spacecraft and nose-dived into scrubby ranchland near Roswell, New Mexico, that town is again in the news. ... read more

Big Picture Science – They Know Who You Are

by GARY NIEDERHOFF on MAY 15, 2015

Big Picture Science – They Know Who You Are

You're a private person. But as long as you're on-line and have skin and hair, you're shedding little bits of data and DNA everywhere you go. Find out how that personal information – whether or not it's used against you – is no longer solely your own. Are your private thoughts next?

A security expert shares stories of ingenious computer hacking ... a forensic scientist develops tools to create a mug shot based on a snippet of DNA ... and from the frontiers of neuroscience: mind reading may no longer be the stuff of sketchy psychics.
